DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

3. Claims 17-18 and 21-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jacober et al. (US patent no. 6,662,081). Jacober discloses a pillbox (23) for attachment to a PED (24), comprising: a body portion (sleeve 29) that includes a generally flat wall that lies in a plane, the flat wall having opposed sides, the body portion being attached to the PED having an alarm software (24) by clips (57 and 58) that project from the opposing sides of the PED; a door (tray 28) that defines a compartment within which pills can be disposed, the door being movable relative to the body portion to selectively open and close the compartment; and a connection between the door and the body portion. See Figure 4 embodiment and column 4, lines 1-17.

With respect to the location of the clips, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to project the clips from opposing sides of the pillbox instead of the PED, since it has been held that a mere reversal of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art. In re Einstein, 8 USPQ 167.

With respect to claims 22 and 23, see column 3, lines 49-67.

With respect to claim 18, Official Notice is taken that it is old and conventional to provide a pair of spaced tracks, which allow the door to move back and forth along the tracks. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made in view of the official notice to provide a pair of tracks to allow the door to move back and forth along the tracks for easier access to the pills.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
